DR. GILBERT T. SADSAD
Regional Director
DepEd NIR
West City ES, Dumaguete City

Dear Director Sadsad:

This Department thru the Bureau of Learner Support Services-School Health Division will conduct a Consultation Program for the WinS Policy Implementation on August 18 - 19, 2016 to be held at the Linden Suites, Ortigas Ave., Pasig City.

The activity will be an avenue for the WinS TWG and regional representatives to provide inputs and recommendations to improve the mechanisms to capacitate the governance at the sub-national level and enable the schools to implement the National WinS Policy. Specifically, the objectives of the consultation workshop would be for the participants to provide recommendations for the following:

- a. Steering structures, roles and responsibilities at every level;
- b. Enhancements of the WinS indicators for the 3-Star Approach;
- c. Process for the 3-Star Approach;
- d. Criteria and Process for Selecting the Best WinS Implementing SDO

In this regard, may we invite one (1) Elementary School Principal or his/her representative from any of your divisions to attend the aforesaid activity. Board and lodging shall be shouldered by UNICEF while travel expenses shall be charged to local funds. Participants are expected to check-in on August 17, 2016 in the afternoon (first meal is dinner) and check-out will be on August 20, 2016 after breakfast. Attached is the Program Schedule for ready reference.

For further details, your staff may contact Dr. Ann P. Quizon, Supervising Health Program Officer, BLSS-SHD at telephone no. (02) 632-9935.

Thank you and we are looking forward to a fruitful discussion.

Very truly yours,

RIZALINO JOSE T. ROSALES
Director IV
