No. 197 s, 2016

TRAINING WORKSHOP on the K-12 CURRICULUM in the MULTI-GRADE CONTEXT

To : Chiefs, SGOD & CID
Division Education Program Supervisors/Division Coordinators
Public Schools District Supervisors/District In Charge
Public Elementary School Heads with Multi-Grade classes
All Others Concerned

1. The 5-day training workshop on the K-12 Curriculum in the Multi-Grade Context is scheduled on April 4-8, 2016 at a venue to be announced later.

2. Participants to this 5 day training workshop are the teachers handling multi-grade classes whose names are identified in the attached list.

3. The objectives of the training are the following:

- 3.1 Equipping the teachers with the KSA of effective multi-grade teachers;
- 3.2 Enhancing their skills and capabilities in making multi-grade classes K-12 compliant;
- 3.3 Compiling different teaching strategies appropriate for multi grade classes; and
- 3.4 Expressing commitment in bringing to their classrooms the new technology learned from the training.

4. This 5-day live in training entitles the teachers to five (5) days service credits and also five (5) days non-monetary Compensatory Time-Dff (CTO) for non teaching personnel serving as trainers and training staff.

5. Training materials, travel of trainers and their board and lodging including the board and lodging of participants shall be chargeable against the MG funds downloaded to the Division Office while travel expenses of teacher-participants shall be chargeable against school MDOE or from any other available school funds all subject to the existing auditing rules and guidelines.

6. Widest dissemination of this memorandum is desired.
