MADAM:

Foundation University will be holding the Expo 2016 on February 17-19, 2016 with the theme "FU ITvolution: The K12 Solution". This is a showcase of Foundation Preparatory Academy's talents, programs as well as some of the latest technological trends, opportunities and solutions.

Exhibits and series of competitions highlight the three-day event such as the programming contest, robotics challenge and the information technology exhibits, culinary shows and demonstrations as well as business advertising and various competitions.

In connection with this, may I request your permission to allow the different high schools in the Division of Negros Oriental to send student-participants in the various competitions and activities of the Expo 2016. Certainly, the participation of the selected students will enrich their knowledge and experience and encourage them to pursue a college education.

Thank you for your continued support of the endeavors of Foundation University to improve the quality of education in the Philippines.

Truly yours,

DAE P. HABALO
Chairman, Expo 2016
Dean, College of Computer Studies
