MRS. LELANIE T. CABRERA, CESE
Asst. Schools Division Superintendent
OIC Schools Division Superintendent
Division of Negros Oriental

Dear Mrs. Cabrera,

A grace-filled day to you !

St. Louis School of Don Bosco rejoices in its upcoming 50th anniversary celebration as an institution in Dumaguete City, Negros Oriental come January 2017. Anchored on the theme, "One Towards the G.O.L.D.", the year-long festivity will embark various authentic activities for the entire Educative Pastoral Community that would enrich the wholistic formation of the students, faculty, parents, alumni and the community. It ultimately aims to strengthen their faith, character and values needed to face the challenges of today.

In this regard, the Student Affairs Office with the Guidance Office are spearheading a one-day Parenting Symposia which draws emphasis on its title "With Jesus, Let us Adventure in Spirit as a Family in Combatting Addiction". The said event is scheduled on September 18, 2016 from 8:00 a.m. to 4:00 pm at Negros Oriental Convention Center which is preceded by a Holy Mass.

We strongly believe that with your support and active involvement on this undertaking, we can bring light and genuine concern for the youth of today in combatting different forms of addiction primarily with the collaborative effort from the family and the school. It is our humble request for official dissemination from your office to enjoin the school heads, guidance counselors and PTA representatives of the Basic Education unit both public and private academic institutions in the Division of Negros Oriental for this laudable undertaking. A minimal registration of P 200.00 per person would cover the seminar kit, certificate of participation, lunch and one snack.

Please don't hesitate to contact us for your concerns or inquiries. You may call our Central Office on this number (035) 422-2712/ 225-0384 local (104) or Mme. Mimi Vintola (09177852108).

We look forward to a fruitful outcome on this endeavor. God bless!

In Don Bosco,

REV. FR. WILBERT S. DIANDN, SDB
School Rector
